

Meet your health match

Robert Stevens

Chief Executive Officer

Robert Stevens has been an Executive in Hospitals and Healthcare Systems for over 30 years. He holds a Masters Degree in Healthcare Administration from the University of Minnesota. He has held numerous professional and elected positions, including Chief Executive Officer of Quality Health Alliance, Rural Healthcare Cooperative, Director of Community Bank – Chaska, Bank Director of Citizens Bank – New Ulm, New Ulm City Council Chair, Springhill School Board of Directors – Excelsior, as well as numerous Committees with the Minnesota and South Dakota Hospital Association.

Bob has also worked with the United States Agency on International Development on Healthcare projects in Russia and Slovakia. He has completed advanced work as a Public Policy Fellow at the Hubert Humphrey Institute and has a green belt six sigma with the Juran Institute. Bob has also been a state and national speaker on topics such as consumer driven healthcare and opposition integration and acquisition.

Personally, Bob has a passion for sailing and travelling. He lives locally in Waconia with his wife Cynthia and his two children, Akayla and Alex, ages 24 and 13 respectively. Both children were adopted from Korea.